The Florida Public Relations Association presents the 7th Annual FPRA Student Public Relations Conference. This event will take place during FPRA's 71st Annual Conference, which attracts professionals from across the state of Florida and features regionally and nationally recognized speakers.

The half-day Student PR Conference is built into the three-day (Aug. 9-12) professional conference so that students can get the benefit of professional development as well as excellent networking opportunities. Students are invited and encouraged not only to attend the sessions that are especially designed for them, but also to attend the professional sessions throughout the three-day Annual Conference. Students are being offered special rates for the half-day conference and the Golden Image Awards Banquet* held on Tuesday, August 11, 2009.

*The Golden Image Awards Banquet will include awards for student projects submitted by full-time students who are currently enrolled at an accredited Florida university or college.

This Year's Student Track Features:

- A Case Study Review:
All-Viral Campaign for Joffrey's Coffee & Tea Co.
- Panel Discussion On:
The Difference Between
Agency, Corporate, &
Non-profit PR
- Resume Building &
Interviewing Workshop
