

THE DORIS FLEISCHMAN UNSUNG HEROES AWARD

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

DEADLINE: April 3, 2023

The Doris Fleischman Award honors a selfless, dedicated volunteer who humbly and steadfastly contributes to the public relations profession through FPRA. In essence, this is an "unsung" hero award, intended to reward that individual who consistently provides support and assistance to the organization.

The Fleischman Award was established to honor the achievements and contributions of Doris Fleischman, business partner and wife of Edward L. Bernays, the "father" of public relations.

The award recognizes those FPRA members, who, like Ms. Fleischman, make contributions to the field of public relations through their consistent, tireless efforts. The award is meant to honor a member for their "behind the scenes" work and FPRA volunteer efforts.

AWARD CRITERIA

- Nominee must be a member, in good standing, of FPRA with a minimum of two years of consecutive membership.
- Nominee must have made significant contributions to an individual chapter and FPRA in general.
- Nominee should not be a state officer or a member of the Award Selection Committee but may have served on the chapter board or as a committee chairperson or continuous committee member.
- Nomination must include a double-spaced, typewritten rationale with specific examples addressing why the nominee should receive the award.
